

DOES YOUR SUPPORT MEASURE UP?

Thursday, 11 October 2007

At today's team announcement media conference, Warriors captain Alastair Kellock was joined by pupils from St Paul's High School in Pollock for the launch of a new marketing initiative aimed at local schools and clubs.

The Warriors have created a life-size poster of the almost 7ft lock which will be distributed throughout Glasgow and the West of Scotland asking those who see it "Does your support measure up?"

With a size chart accompanying "Big Al" on the poster, members of the public will be able to measure themselves against the tallest member of The Biggest Team in Glasgow.

Whilst at The Arena, the pupils were invited to watch the Warriors' team run before meeting the squad.

Tickets for tomorrow night's game are still available, priced at £15 for adults and £5 for concessions (under 18s, students & OAPs), by calling the Ticket Hotline on 0844 800 3490 or by logging onto www.glasgowwarriors.org
