

CLERMONT 12 – 0 WARRIORS

Friday, 07 August 2009

Glasgow Warriors put in a vigorous performance in their second and final game of the Challenge Auvergne tonight against host side Clermont Auvergne.

Jason White's Clermont just edged the encounter, leading 5-0 at half-time, before sealing the win in the second period with a converted try to win 12-0.

Glasgow Warriors put in a vigorous performance in their second and final game of the Challenge Auvergne tonight against host side Clermont Auvergne.

Jason White's Clermont just edged the encounter, leading 5-0 at half-time, before sealing the win in the second period with a converted try to win 12-0.

The Warriors have conceded just three tries in two games against stern French opposition and will return to the UK on Saturday before a week's break ahead of two UK dates.

The Warriors will continue their pre-season preparations against Doncaster at Castle Park on Friday 21 August (kick-off 7:30pm) before their final outing against London Wasps at Firhill on Friday 28 August (kick-off 7:30pm).

Glasgow open their Magners League campaign at home to Munster on Friday 4 September (kick-off 8pm).

Glasgow Warriors: Bernardo Stortoni; Rob Dewey, Peter Murchie, Peter Horne, Colin Shaw; Ruaridh Jackson, Mark McMillan; Justin Vaa, Dougie Hall, Hamish Mitchell, Richie Gray, Dan Turner, Calum Forrester, Chris Fusaro (Heriot's)*, Johnnie Beattie

Replacements: Pat MacArthur, Kevin Tkachuk, Jon Welsh, Tim Barker, Richie Vernon, Paul Burke (Ayr), Colin Gregor, Dan Parks, Dave McCall, Hefin O'Hare, Chris Kinloch

* = Member of Scottish Rugby's Contracted National Academy

ASM Clermont Auvergne: Anthony Floch ; Aurélien Rougerie CAPTAIN, Wesley Fofana, Gonzalo Canale, Napolioni Nalaga, Brock James, Morgan Parra, Davit Zirkashvili, Benoît Cabello, Vincent Debaty, Jamie Cudmore, Thibaut Privat, Jason White, Alexandre Audebert, Elvis Vermeulen

Replacements: Willie Wepener, Martin Scelzo, Thomas Domingo, Lionel Faure, Julien Pierre, Christophe Samson, Julien Bardy, Kevin Senio, Ludovic Radosavljevic, Brent Russel, Jérémie Malzieu

THE BIGGEST TEAM IN GLASGOW BELONGS TO YOU

The 2009/10 Glasgow Warriors season ticket has more benefits than ever before.

On top of a match-by-match saving of over £100 (based on an adult season ticket), the new deal includes free entry for you and a friend for the pre-season friendly against London Wasps, entry into the ticket ballot for RBS 6 Nations tickets, free admission to the away 1872 Cup match against Edinburgh in addition to two further Edinburgh fixtures at Murrayfield plus free entry into a Partick Thistle league game.

Season ticket holders aged 12 and under will also be entered into the exclusive prize draw to run out with the Warriors as the official mascot at a Glasgow home game.

Season ticket prices remain at just £30 for under 18s with concessions and students enjoying all the action for only £80. Adult season tickets are priced at £160.

Call the ticket hotline on 0844 800 3490 or CLICK HERE to add your name to the list of signings for The Biggest Team in Glasgow.